

I vigorously oppose this rulemaking and attempt by SAVVI to end-run Part 15 restrictions that protect Amateur bandwidth. Amateur radio is a vital component to local, state and federal disaster relief agencies, and allowing operation of RF emission devices that possesses field strengths in the proposed proceedings will definitely impact Amateur operations. There are other frequencies and bands where this field-strength effect will not adversely impact Amateur radio. Please deny this petition for rulemaking. Thanks and kind regards.